LUNCH BREAKS

During the lunch breaks we suggest you to experience the Czech tradition of “daily menu”. Downtown Ostrava offers plenty of restaurants serving “daily” or “midday” menu, which is rather a dinner comprised of a soup and a main course (one can choose from 2 to 10 or even more courses) and sometimes a beverage, salad or dessert is included. The price starts at 60 CZK, “business menu” is usually over 100 CZK. If you cannot choose from the “midday menu”, do not hesitate to order some “regular meal” from the menu card, but keep in mind that during lunchtime the preparation of regular meal will take a longer time. Smoking in the restaurants is usually allowed, however it can be restricted during the lunchtime.

Friday and Saturday are the best choices to enjoy Stodolni St., but the bars and clubs are open week through. Simply browse the street and drop in the place you like. The best known are Kralovstvi pecivalu, Bernie's, Bastila, Sherlock's, Dublin, Levsky, Desperado, E99, Zadni vratka, Cerna hvezda or Potrefena husa.

If you prefer pubs instead of noisy bars, try something out of Stodolni. U Rady (Postovni St.) or Krizanek (Nadrazni St., just at the intersection with Stodolni St.) offer you good beer, traditional Czech cuisine and also traditional smoky environment ☺. Hobit Pub (Privozská St., opposite Hotel Maria) offers craft beer (Qasek) and cold specialities as drowned sausage, drowned cheese or bratwurst. Non-smoking restaurant U skakaveho ponika just next to Hobit Pub serves not only craft beer Qasek, but also hot meals.

Downtown Ostrava offers also plenty of cafés. The best known are Café N° 10 (Jiraskovo Sq.), Real Café (Realni St.), Literarni kavarna (Masaryk Sq., in the Academia bookshop), Atlantik (Ceskolovenskych Legii St., with the free wi-fi internet access), Cerna hvezda (at the very beginning of Stodolni St.), Cafe au Pere Tranquille (French style café, second turning to the right from Stodolni St.), Ostravanka (Milicova St.), or Voliera (Realni St., tiny student café in the backyard of the Faculty of Arts).

INTERNET ACCESS

The wi-fi Internet connection is available free at the building M. Moreover, there should be no problem with Internet access in your hotel. Most of cafés and restaurants provide free wi-fi Internet access – so don't forget your laptop when going for the lunch or cup of coffee. Some of the restaurants or cafés with the free wi-fi Internet: Levsky, Dlouha 100ry, Atlantik, Pod Muzeem, etc.
